

Curriculum Vitae
Mark Friedman

Contact Information

37 Capri Drive
Mankato, MN 56001
507-625-5092
Email: mark.friedman@colostate.edu

Education

Current enrollment: Ph. D. program at Colorado State University, Department of Economics. Coursework completed.

M.A. Economics, Minnesota State University, Mankato, May, 1992

B.A. Journalism, University of Minnesota, May, 1982

Positions

Current: Instructor of Economics, South Central College, Mankato, MN
Courses: Principles of Macroeconomics, Principles of Microeconomics
Previously served as an adjunct instructor in the 2007-2008 academic year, and also from 2000-2003.

Summer, 2006 Temporary Instructor, Colorado State University
Course taught: Economics of Social Issues

2003-2006 Graduate Teaching Assistant, Colorado State University
Assisted with principles courses, and Economics of Social Issues

2000-2003, 2008 Adjunct Faculty, Minnesota State University, Mankato
Courses taught: Principles of Macroeconomics, Principles of Microeconomics,
Introduction to Economics

2000-2003 Adjunct Faculty, Rasmussen Business College, Mankato, MN
Courses taught: Introduction to Economics

1990-1992 Co-editor of the Human Economy Newsletter, published by the Center for Human Economy at Minnesota State University.

Publications

“Living Wage and Optimal Inequality in a Sarkarian Framework,” Review of Social Economy 66(1) March, 2008.